SUBJECT: Summary of Conclusions, Deputies Committee Meeting
on Bosnia, February 26, 1993 ~~(S)~~

SUMMARY OF CONCLUSIONS

- State will draft a message to Ankara and Islamabad to address Turkish and Pakistani offers to participate in the airlift. We will welcome their offer in principle and accept what supplies they can provide. We will also offer to accept air crews of their nationals. We will defer any decision on their offers of aircraft, however, until others join, i.e. Russians, Germans, etc. ~~(S)~~
- State will draft a message to UNHCR and the UN urging that ground deliveries not be halted during the airlift. ~~(S)~~
- We will confirm with the Germans that any offer they chose to make would be accepted, including use of C-160 aircraft. ~~(S)~~
- EUCOM will provide daily press briefings on the air drop operation. A back-up will be maintained by the Pentagon in Washington in the event a crisis develops. ~~(S)~~
- On the issue of Russian participation in the air drop operation, State will track Kozyrev's expected reply to the Secretary next week. ~~(S)~~

- Deputies agreed that the essence of a successful outcome of the U.S. initiative in Bosnia is an agreement that is equitable and workable. With this in mind, NSC will circulate under separate cover the work program to develop our views of the Vance/Owen plan and to support Bartholomew in his discussions. ~~(S)~~
- USIA will join the Working Group Meetings and work with State on implementing a program of coverage to ensure that desired messages are reaching the intended audiences. ~~(S)~~
- Bartholomew will explore the issue of enforcement of the No-Fly Zone in the context of his discussion in New York. ~~(S)~~
