Jane HollSummary of Conclusions

- Deputies agreed that because the fast-paced nature of events in New York could present us with a fait accompli before our thinking on the various issues is fully developed, tasks would be undertaken on an urgent basis and Deputies would reconvene either late Friday or Saturday to review current status. (S)
- Working Group members will evaluate the OSD paper on implementing the Vance/Owen plan, convey reactions to OSD this evening, if possible. The working group would then consider the paper and next steps at its meeting tomorrow morning. (S)
- CIA will forward its analysis of the Vance/Owen map upon receipt of the Bosnia proposal which State will help secure. (S)
- OSD will collate agency reactions to its Siege of Sarajevo paper and also incorporate an analysis of the "Lantos" option, i.e. moving the negotiations to Sarajevo. (S)
- State will draft a cable to capitals, following up to the UN Security Council statement of March 3. The cable will outline our proposals for tightening sanctions as a means of putting 'teeth' into the UN Security Council statement. (S)

- Leon Fuerth and the Sanctions group will work up a new proposal for sanctions tightening for Deputies consideration for presentation to Principals. (S)
- Deputies will sound Principals out on their preliminary thinking regarding whether we should begin to consider tougher steps -- involving U.S. air power or ground forces -- to take to respond to the mounting violence in Eastern Bosnia. (S)
- OSD/JCS will prepare an options paper for dealing with a potential mounting refugee problem in Tuzla. (S)
