SUBJECT: Summary of Conclusions of Deputies Committee
Meeting on Bosnia, March 9, 1993, 4:00pm ~~(S)~~

1. State will prepare a message from Secretary Christopher to French Foreign Minister Dumas, urging that Serbian President Milosevic be pressed to reach an agreement during his March 11 visit to Paris and stressing the serious consequences for Serbia if the Bosnian government signs and Serb forces continue attacking. ~~(S)~~
2. State will prepare a similar cable to Embassy Moscow, urging that Russia use its influence with Milosevic. ~~(S)~~
3. The U.S. will not propose a new Security Council resolution on sanctions during the meeting of the Russian Congress of People's Deputies. The Sanctions Working Group will, however, continue refining our substantive position in order to be prepared when/if the time is right. The Deputies will revisit the issue at the end of this week in light, inter alia, of developments at the Russian Congress and of whether our willingness to introduce such a resolution might help get Bosnian President Izetbegovic to return to the talks. ~~(S)~~
4. State will prepare a concept paper for a possible trip by Special Envoy Bartholomew to the former Yugoslavia and possibly other capitals as well. (State subsequently agreed to distribute this draft no later than Thursday, March 11.) That concept paper will help Deputies/Principals decide whether Ambassador Bartholomew should travel at this time. ~~(S)~~
