SUBJECT: Decisions of Principals Committee Meeting on Bosnia, March 25, 1993 ~~(S)~~

1. Principals agreed on a statement to be issued by the State Department about Bosnian President Izetbegovic's signing of the Vance/Owen plan. ~~(S)~~
2. Principals agreed on the points to describe American willingness to help implement and enforce an agreement signed by all the Bosnian parties. ~~(S)~~
3. CIA Director Woolsey will prepare an assessment of how we would determine who was responsible for serious non-compliance with an agreement. ~~(S)~~
4. Multilateral movement to deploy forces would begin after signature of an agreement and passage of the necessary UN resolution. OSD and JCS will prepare a timeline, integrating those envisioned in the Vance/Owen "Military Accords" with SHAPE's contingency planning for deploying a force. The Principals will discuss this integrated timeline at an early meeting--probably Saturday March 27. ~~(S)~~
5. We will phase implementation of commitments made to Bosnian President Izetbegovic in the event of his signing in the following order: (1) tightening sanctions and closing loopholes in them (this will include proposing new Security Council resolutions, but will be described as "tightening" and "closing loopholes" in hopes of making them more palatable in Russia; (2) passage of a resolution authorizing enforcement of the No Fly Zone, on the timetable agreed between Russian Foreign Minister Kozyrev and Secretary Christopher; and (3) trying to ease the arms embargo. ~~(S)~~
