THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

MEMORANDUM FOR THE SECRETARY OF STATE
THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE
DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE
CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF
PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVE OF THE UNITED STATES
TO THE UNITED NATIONS
ASSISTANT TO THE VICE PRESIDENT FOR NATIONAL SECURITY AFFAIRS

SUBJECT: Decisions of Principals Committee Meeting with the President and Vice President on Bosnia, May 8,
1993 ~~(S)~~

- Stress growing determination of allies and others to maintain and increase pressure on the Serbs, and that all options remain open -- thus leaving open the possibility of lifting the arms embargo. We will not legitimize the Bosnian Serb referendum as a reason for delay in agreeing on tougher measures, but as necessary will note that the delay is caused by European desires to wait until after that vote. Encourage the Europeans to endorse this position. (Secretary Christopher will phone EC Foreign Ministers May 8 and 9.)
- Step up the containment elements of U.S. strategy. This could include placing U.S. Army personnel in Macedonia as part of UN mission to serve as a deterrent and perhaps with the express task of helping enforce the sanctions. (General Powell will recommend optimum mission, numbers and types of units or individuals.) U.S. will encourage allies and UN to push Milosevic to allow more CSCE observers in Kosovo. (Secretary Christopher will urge European Community members to take the lead.)
- Test Milosevic on his promise to close the Serbian-Bosnian Border. This will include encouraging UNPROFOR to put monitors on the Serbian/Bosnian border, including the Drina River bridges. (By COB Monday, May 10, Leon Fuerth's Sanctions Committee will devise other specific steps we can ask Milosevic to take to make good on his promise.)
- Congressional consultations. The President will try to meet with Senators Nunn, Lugar, Warner, and Bumpers and possibly Pell and Stevens. (NSC staff will prepare talking points.)
