Summary of Conclusions

Bosnian-Croat Negotiations

- Secretary Christopher will prepare a status report for the President on the negotiations now underway in Washington, which Mr. Lake will take to the President in Pittsburgh the afternoon of February 28. ~~(S)~~

NATO February 28 Enforcement of Bosnian No-Fly-Zone

- In public, we will stress that the February 28 action was a NATO rather than U.S. operation, and that NATO acted in response to a clear violation without certainty as to the nationality of the aircraft. NATO was enforcing a UN Security Council resolution that applies equally to all the Bosnian parties. ~~(S)~~

- Secretary Perry and General Shalikashvilli will brief the Hill leadership and key committee chairmen the afternoon of February 28. ~~(S)~~
- The Pentagon will give a press background briefing the afternoon of February 28, amplifying public remarks already made by President Clinton. ~~(S)~~
- Ambassador Albright will suggest to UN Under Secretary Annan that he request a briefing through NATO military channels, on the basis of which he could then brief the Security Council. ~~(S)~~

Possible Further Actions

- The Deputies Committee will meet during the week of February 28 on possible steps to aid or accelerate the opening of Tuzla airport. The IWG paper of February 14 describing possibilities will be used as the basis for consideration of the latter point. ~~(S)~~
- The Principals Committee will meet on the latter point, and the former if necessary, Monday March 7. ~~(S)~~

Congressional support for Bosnian policy

- The Administration will explore with Representative Hamilton prospects for passage of his draft resolution without opening a full debate on Bosnia policy. Our basic position remains, as the President has said, that we welcome a resolution endorsing the Administration's plans. ~~(S)~~

French Draft UNSC Resolution

- We will continue supporting the French draft but not push for it. If useful to meet Russian concerns, we will agree to drop reference to Brcko. ~~(S)~~
