Summary of Conclusions

1. The IWG will examine possibilities for international economic assistance to pacified areas in the Bosniac-Croat Federation. ~~(S)~~
2. Secretary Christopher will reaffirm to Allied Foreign Ministers that the U.S. will only participate in implementing a peace agreement under NATO command. ~~(S)~~
3. C/JCS will prepare an analysis of likely scenarios and consequences if we pushed to make Tuzla an exclusion zone. ~~(S)~~
4. Ambassador Redman will try to accelerate UN efforts to negotiate a cessation of hostilities. He will involve the Contact Group in that effort and otherwise try to ensure it receives higher priority and attention. ~~(S)~~

5. All Principals will have their staffs begin thinking about what would indicate that the current negotiating effort had failed and what our strategy might be then. ~~(S)~~
6. State will prepare demarches to Skopje and Athens about violations of economic sanctions on Serbia. ~~(S)~~
7. State will respond to the National Security Advisor's memorandum on increasing Sanctions Assistance Monitors. ~~(S)~~
8. State will make a recommendation on the visa application of ex-Yugoslav National Bank Governor Avramovic. ~~(S)~~
9. Since no other country now is pushing a UNSC resolution declaring Brcko a cease-fire area, we will not. ~~(S)~~
