Summary of Conclusions

1. Secretary Christopher will seek Contact Group Ministers' support at the July 30 meeting for the full range of consequences: sanctions tightening, and extension and enforcement of exclusion zones. Recognizing Contact Group consensus on all measures is unlikely, Secretary Christopher will insist on strict enforcement of existing zones and support urgent planning for extension of exclusion zones to other safe areas, which could be implemented in phases. There can be no extension without agreement to strictly enforce existing zones. A strong marker will be laid down that if there are no agreed serious consequences, we will move sooner rather than later to seek multilaterally lifting the arms embargo, and failing that, there will be irresistible pressures to lift unilaterally. ~~(S)~~

2. Leon Fuerth will develop a strategy to increase high-level U.S. pressure on the British to accede to our view concerning tightening of economic sanctions, specifically dealing with closing down offshore "FRY" enterprises. ~~(S)~~
3. Leon Fuerth and Ambassador Redman will spearhead an effort to urgently develop a strategy to separate Milosevic from the Bosnian Serbs. ~~(S)~~
4. In view of recent Bosnian Serb provocations, the Principals agreed to press for implementation of existing NATO decisions on enforcement of exclusion zones. ~~(S)~~
5. The IWG will urgently examine two scenarios for lifting the arms embargo: (1) with no follow-on U.S. requirement to support the Bosnian Government; and (2) with a presumption that external support will be required. The analysis will include a review of UNPROFOR with a view to the creation of an UNPROFOR II with appropriate mandates. ~~(S)~~
